

60th Birthday Ride

This summer, I have been wondering how to celebrate my 60th Birthday. Over the last 2 years, I have come an avid cyclist - particular mountain biking. So, I decided the best way to celebrate is by having a mountain bike ride with my friends. Here's the skinny on the ride:

Lake Manawa State Park, Council Bluffs, IA
Saturday, October 13th, 2007 Start gathering at 1pm
Ride the trails for 1 1/2 to 2 hours
Food and drinks to follow (at a shelter at the Park)

No charge. I will have burgers and buns - bring what else you want to eat/drink

I had planned to reserve a shelter, but after 9/30 there are no reservations - first come/first served. So we will shoot for Shelter 2.

If the trails are not rideable, we can take a ride on the paved trail around CB. Lets hope for good weather and trail conditions.
